Writing

When I sat down I discovered I was next to someone very famous. It was Elon Musk! I asked him for his story and wrote it down here:

— My name is Elon Musk. I am ^{an} inventor and millionaire. I have three companies — Starlink, Tesla and a bionics-based company. I ^{was} born in South African Republic and when I was seventeen I moved ^{to the} USA with idea of new life my backpack and two thousands of dollars. For a first time I studied and disco- was studying and discovering different mechanisms. After my study I created my first company — Tesla. In Tesla we are creating and selling different types ~~models~~ of electric cars (full-electric). Later I created my second and third companies. In Starlink we decided to create a satellite-connected internet which works in place all around the world. In last company we are researching abilities of bionic devices connected with a human's or animal's body.
