WRITING

Today I want to tell about my last time I was in the cinema. I went in a drama film with my relatives. Until this time I have never interested in that type of films and I can't suppose that it will be so good.

"A dog is a man's friend" - it's a main words about this film. History about smart dog with many different lifes but only one human. This couple had lovely friendship and one mind. The directors and actors try to force us crying, and yes, they did it! It's the most sad film I had ever seen! The end is very depressing because the favourite hero dead. In this part I had different strange emotions, ~~I was~~ I was depressed, exited, happy and e.t.c.

In my opinion, "The dog's life" - the name of this film, is a best drama in this world. For the end, I really want to recommend this movie for everyone, thanks.
